

Dear prospective AP English student:

We are so excited that you have decided to challenge yourself with AP English! Both of the AP English classes focus on reading and writing at a college level, and will help you develop the skills you will need to be successful in both college and your future careers. At this school, students take AP Language and Composition in their junior year, and AP Literature in their senior year. The AP Language course focuses on models of argumentation and nonfiction, while the AP Literature class focuses on fiction and poetry. Both courses will give you the opportunity to take the AP test at the beginning of May. For next year, the AP Language test will be on Wednesday, May 10, 2017 and the AP Literature test will be on Wednesday, May 3, 2017.

To help prepare you for this class, we have assigned a summer assignment for you. Please make sure that you have the correct assignment for the class you will be taking next year. The summer assignments are due the first day of school.

We will be available this coming week to answer any questions you have about the summer assignments or the class as a whole. Mr. Harnden will be available in room R1 for AP Literature, and Ms. Hooper and/or Ms. Ingram will be available in room R5 for AP Language on Wednesday, June 1st and Thursday, June 2nd during second lunch.

We are excited for next year!

Ms. Ingram, Mr. Harnden, and Ms. Hooper
