The screenshot displays the Microsoft Translator website interface. At the top, the Microsoft logo is on the left, and navigation links for 'Translator', 'Home', 'Text', 'Conversation', 'Applications', 'Help', 'Languages', and 'For Education' are in the center. A 'For Business' button is on the right, along with 'All Microsoft' and a search icon. The main content area features a blurred background image of people in a meeting. On the left, there is an icon of two people with sound waves, followed by the heading 'Break the language barrier' and the text 'Translated conversations across devices, for one-on-one chats and for larger group interactions.' On the right, a dark dialog box is open with two tabs: 'Join conversation' and 'Start conversation'. The 'Start conversation' tab is active. It contains three input fields: 'Conversation code' (empty), 'Your name' (filled with 'Kristal Henriquez-Pulido'), and 'Your language' (a dropdown menu set to 'English'). A green 'Enter' button is at the bottom of the dialog. At the very bottom of the dialog, there are links for 'Privacy & cookies' and 'Services Agreement'.
